I laughed at the idea of using a proprietary medicine, and yet the party recommending it (Mr. Stacey Hill, remember), being a man of sound judgement, set me to thinking the matter over. The next day, when the physicians called, I dismissed them, and said to myself that I would let nature take its course. That resolution lasted just a day. On the following morning I, in a fit of desperation, sent a servant for a bottle fit of desperation, sent a servant for a bottle landled that wonderful remedy, and it penetrated me so that I thought my foot was about to fall off, but it did not; in fact it did just the opposite. The next morning the pain had entirely left my foot the swelling was reduced, and really from the day before, that it actually surprised me. I applied more of the St. Jacobs Oil, and that afternoon I walked down here to the office, and was able to attend to my duties and get around as well as any one. Let me say for St. Jacobs Oil that it beats

The Sun's light is for mankind and womankind of every sort; but its genial warmth is for the good, while it pours hot discomfort on Lawyers, Clergymen, Physicians, the blistering backs of the persistently wicked. THE SUN of 1868 was a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertook to report in a fresh, succinct, unconventional way all the news of the reilroad time, and is always sure to win .- | world, omitting no event of human interest, and commenting upon affairs with the fearlessness of absolute independence.
